New Bedford High School

Nineteen Eighty-eight

SUPPLEMENT

MAKE IT LAST FOREVER

The music flowed throughout the Venus de Milo on the night of June 6th when the Class of 1988 celebrated its senior prom. The candlelit dinner was followed by an evening of fun, dancing and picture-taking. As the prom ended, parting couples left with a souvenir booklet of memorable thoughts and events and a Class of '88 glass. Both items will bring back memories of a great night.

THE MUSIC MAN

Under the skillful direction of co-directors George T. Charbonneau and Armand R. Marchand, the NBHS Drama Club presented the dynamic production of "The Music Man". Audiences were captivated as they viewed the latest spring production.

In the principal roles were Jason Duval as the fast-talking musicman Harold Hill and Corinne Paquin as the sophisticated librarian Marian Paroo with whom he falls in love. Their talented voices led to such memorable scenes as "Seventy-six Trombones", "Marian the Librarian" and "Till There Was You". Lynn Sylvia as Marian's Irish-wise mother gave a performance worthy of praise, as did the rest of the cast.

Other seniors making their final curtain call were Ed Georgsen, Rob Meunier, Michele Pelletier, Bob Anderson and Shawn Sameiro.

By the end of the play, Harold Hill had conned his way into everyone's hearts, and the cast received a spirited standing ovation at the conclusion of each night's performance.

Credit is due to Clay James and Janice MacDonald for their fast-paced and upbeat Broadway- like choregraphy and to Frank Noonan for his artistic music direction. Authentic costumes from a New York City agency, realistic and handsome backdrops, combined with the hard work of all the technical crews led to a truly professional show.

Season's end brought the traditional Drama Club Awards Banquet. Outstanding acting awards were presented as well as scholarships. Pictured above are the happy recipients.

JUST A CLASS
ACT
SENIOR BANQUET

SENIORS ARE SPECIAL!

JUST A CLASS
ACT

SUPER SENIOR DAY . . .
"Night and Day"

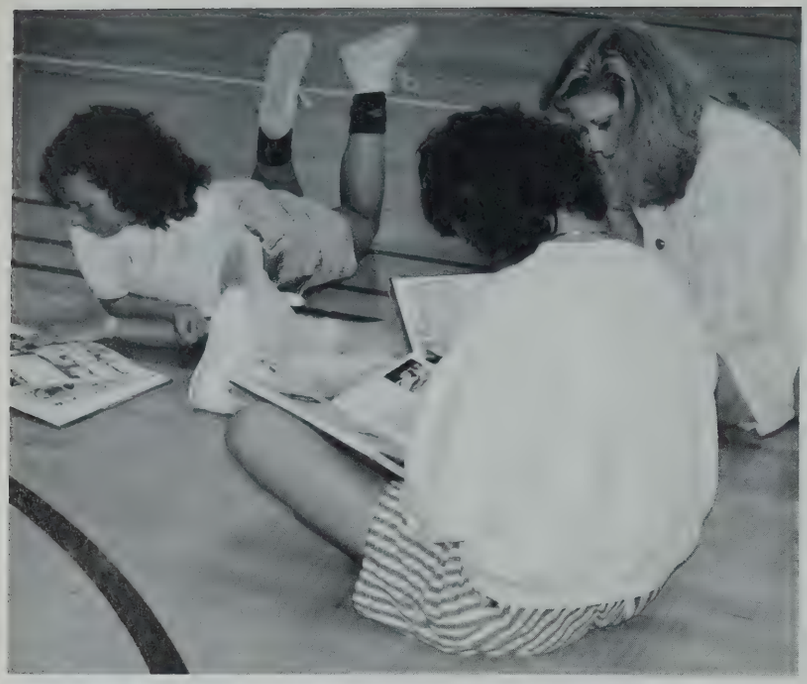
The day started with surprise gifts in homerooms and chocolate whales! Throughout the day, flowers, gift certificates and surprises were sent to unsuspecting seniors. The last two periods saw the Class of '88 treated to ice cream sundaes. Finally, the climax of the day was greeted with excitement as yearbooks were distributed that evening.



Coca-Cola

ROCK THE BOAT

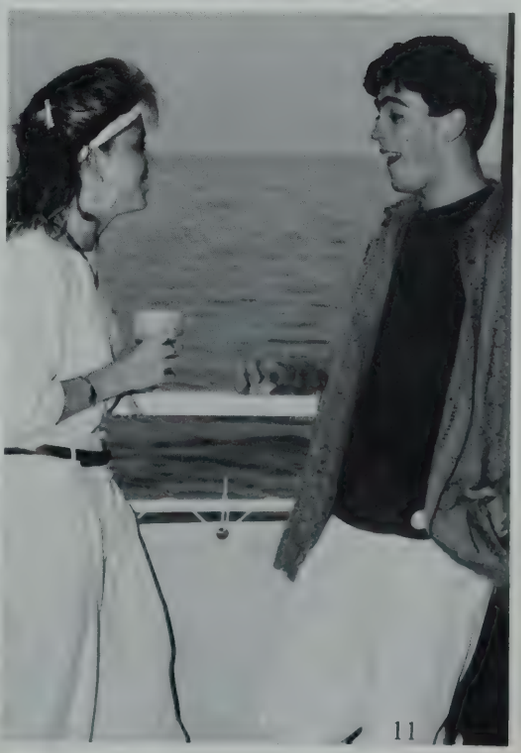
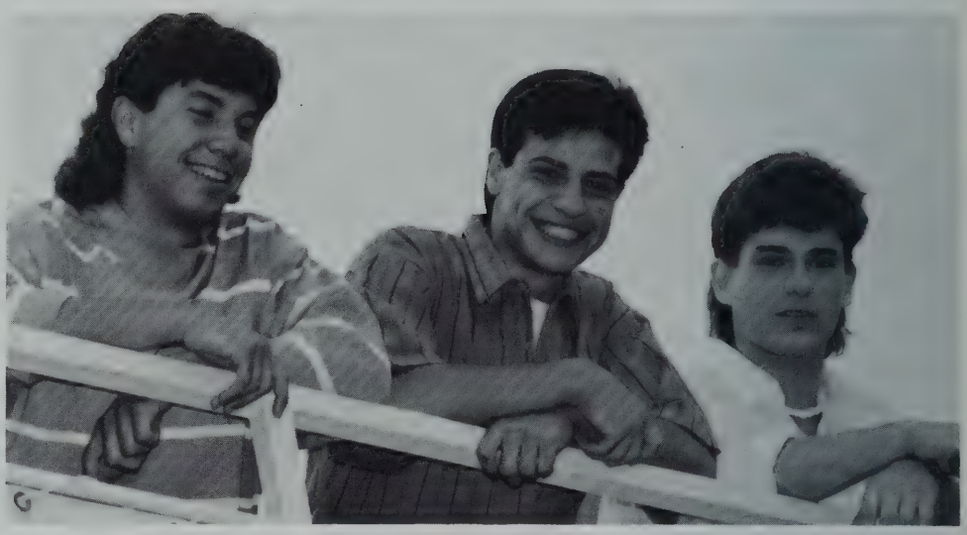
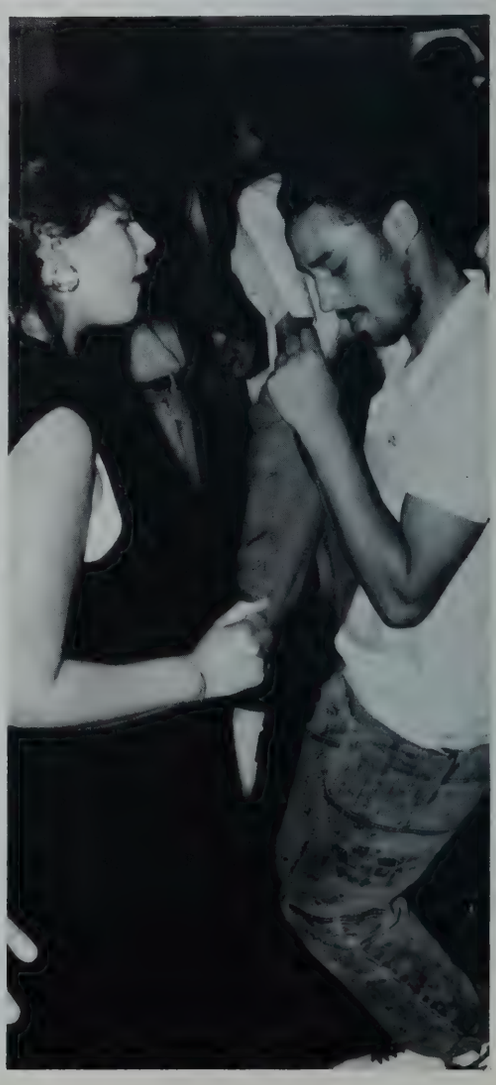
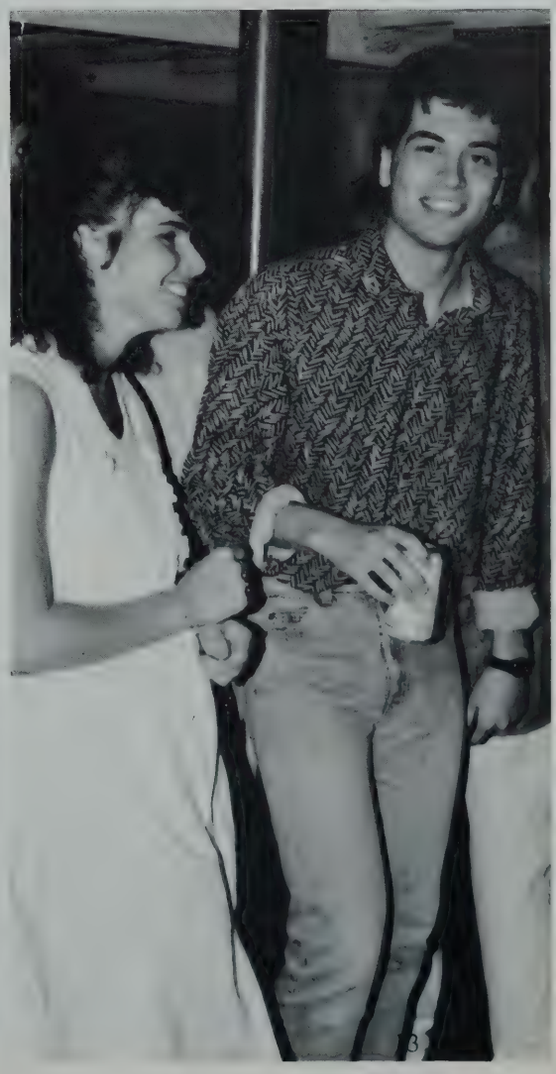
The Schamonchi was rocking when the Class of '88 embarked on their senior cruise. With the help of DJ John Thomas, a member of the senior class, the rocking never stopped until docking back at the pier at 10:00 pm. The weather was great, the dancing was hot, and the evening was unforgettable.







Penn State



MASSACHUSETTS

THE RIGHT STUFF

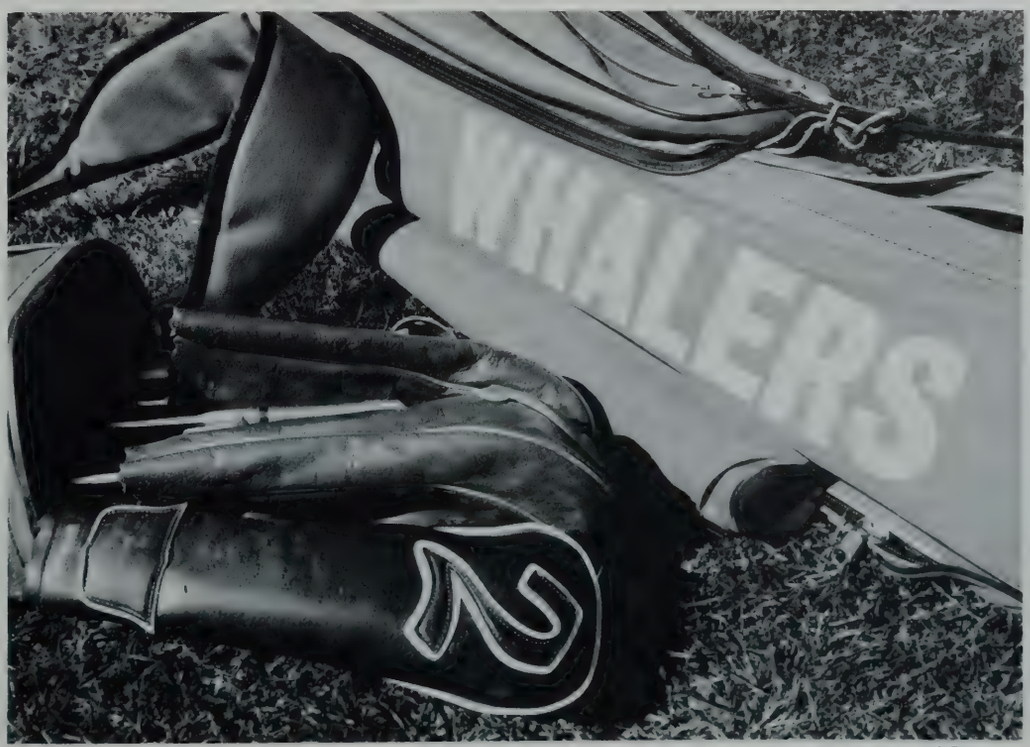
The spring season proved successful for many of the teams, as several reached post-season tournaments. Although the weather played havoc with the schedules, the Whalers hung tough.

Hats off to those individuals who attained individual best records and to those teams that played tenaciously throughout the season.

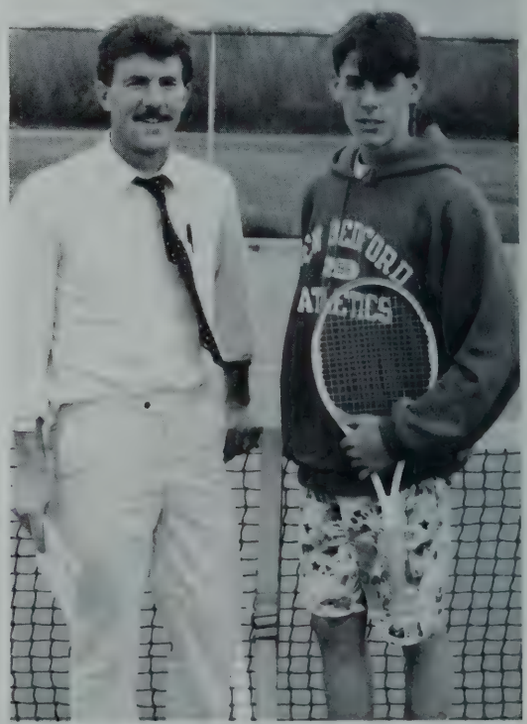
Pictured on the following pages are the teams scheduled for the spring season. Space does not allow room for individual pictures of all the seniors, but we've chosen a few as representatives of those seniors wearing the Whaler uniform for the last time.



NEW BEDFORD

27
NEW BEDFORD

DON NAY
DON NAY



ATHLETICS

NEW BEDFORD
FEEHAN

UCS

NEW BEDFORD ATHLETICS

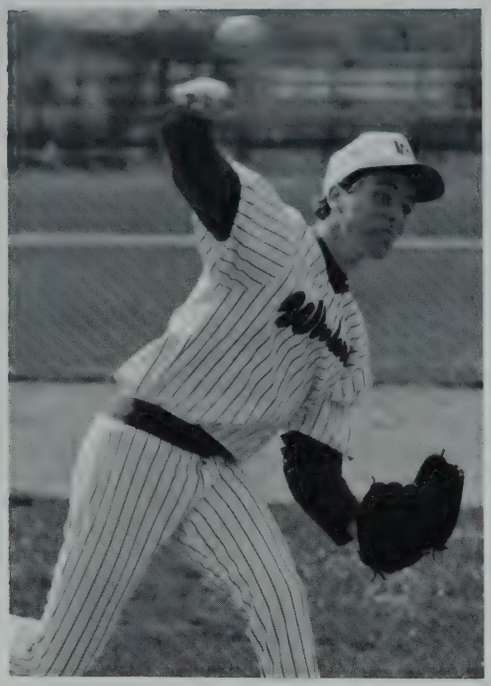
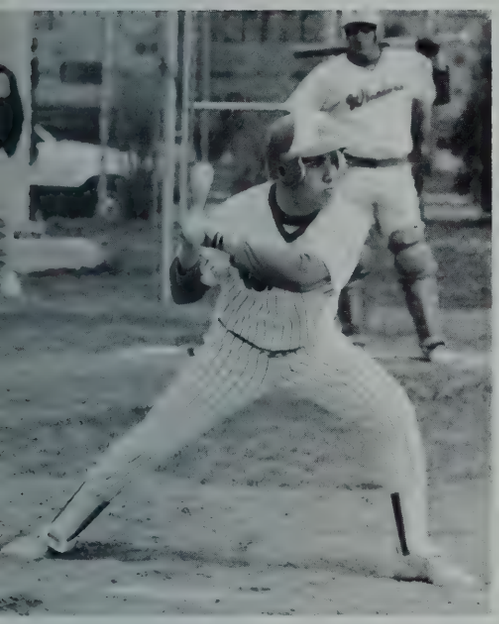
NB





19

SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER

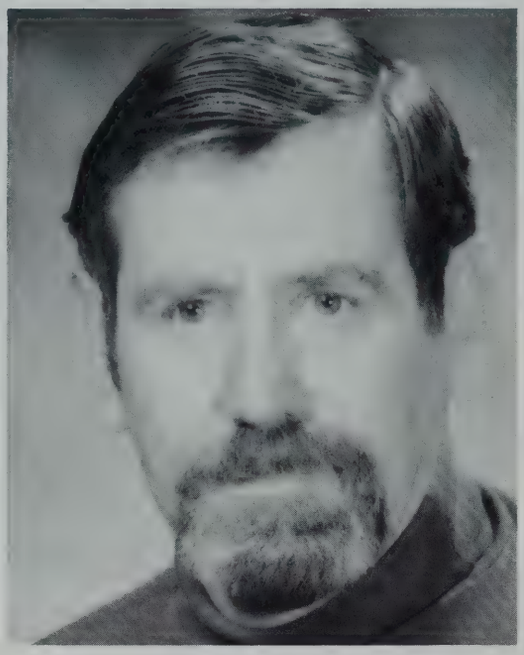
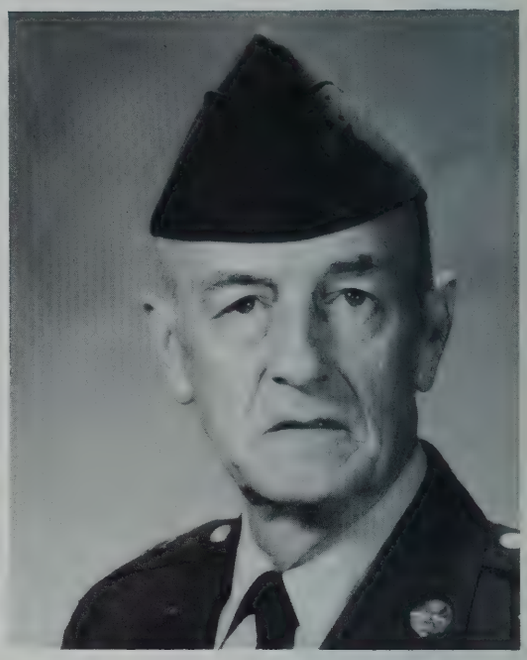
(We won't . . .)

Mr. M. Galipeau



Mr. E. McCarthy



R.F. SFC Morrison

Mrs. J. Roberts

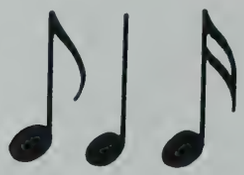
Mrs. A. Rose

Mr. W. Savage

Mrs. M. Zielinski

The Class of '88 salutes and says good-bye to the above members of the NBHS faculty. Together they represent many years of teaching and spread across many different disciplines, touching all aspects of the NBHS staff.

We wish them many happy years of retirement, good health and happy days.



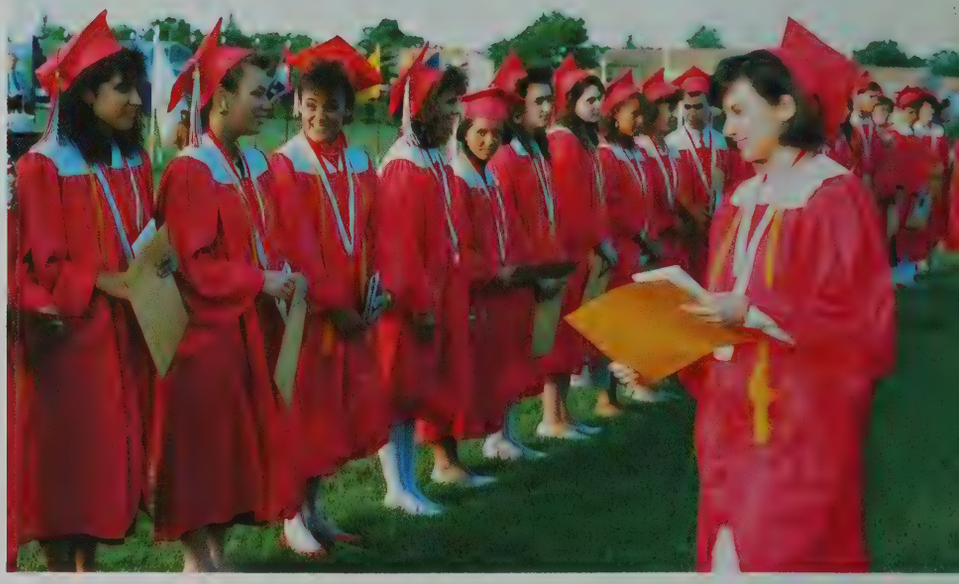
NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

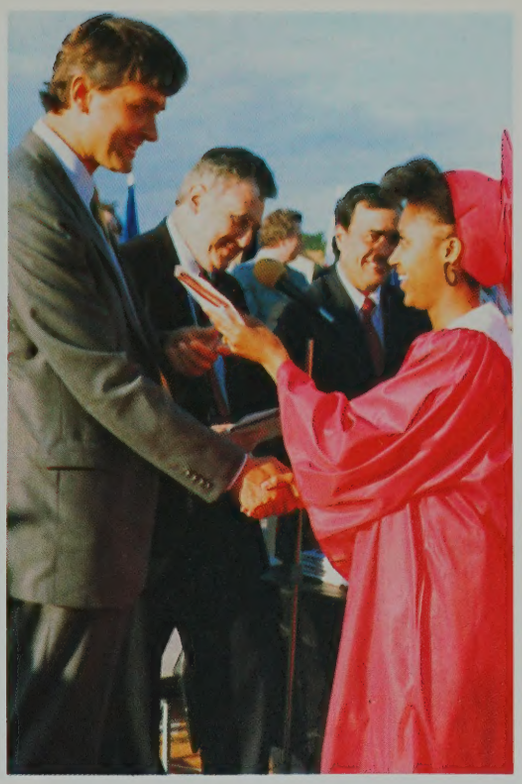
The final gathering of the Class of '88 was one of very mixed emotions. After one day's postponement, the class filed out to a dry field. They passed through the honor guard of red and white balloons, and they headed toward the seats and podium beautifully decorated with colorful flags.

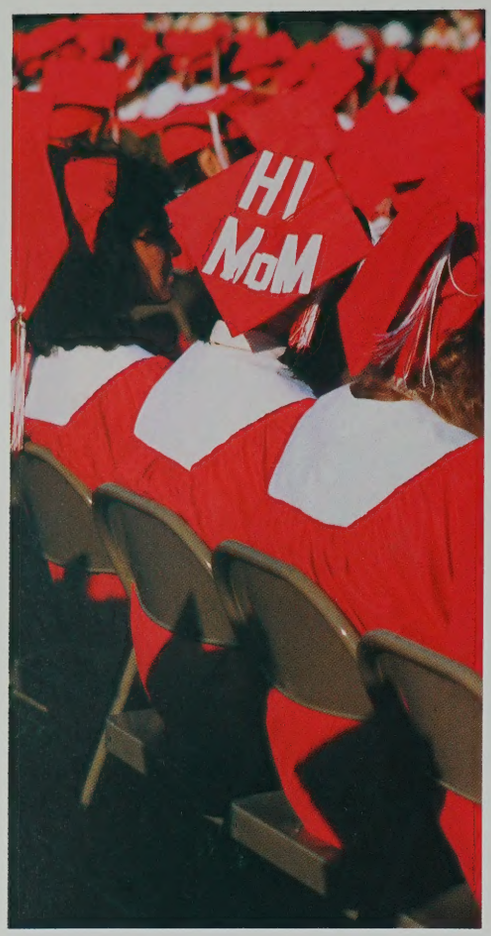
I HAD THE TIME OF MY LIFE

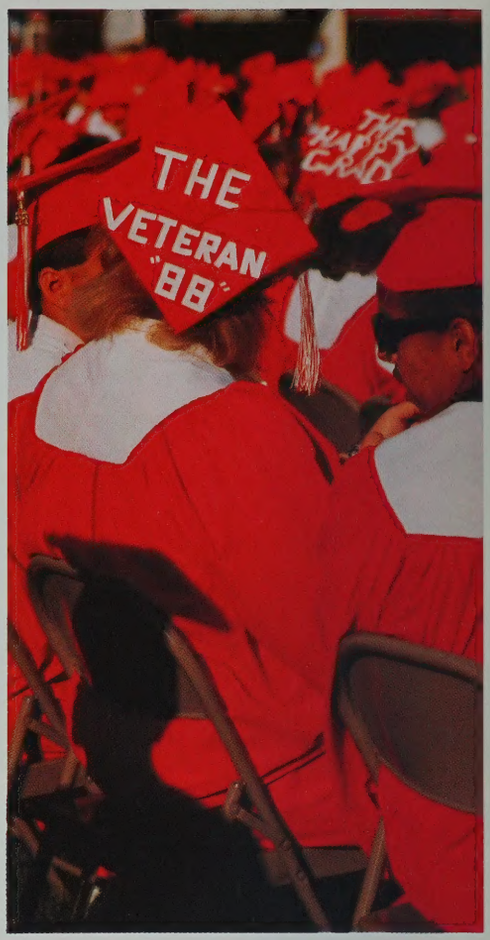
NEW BEDFORD
HIGH SCHOOL

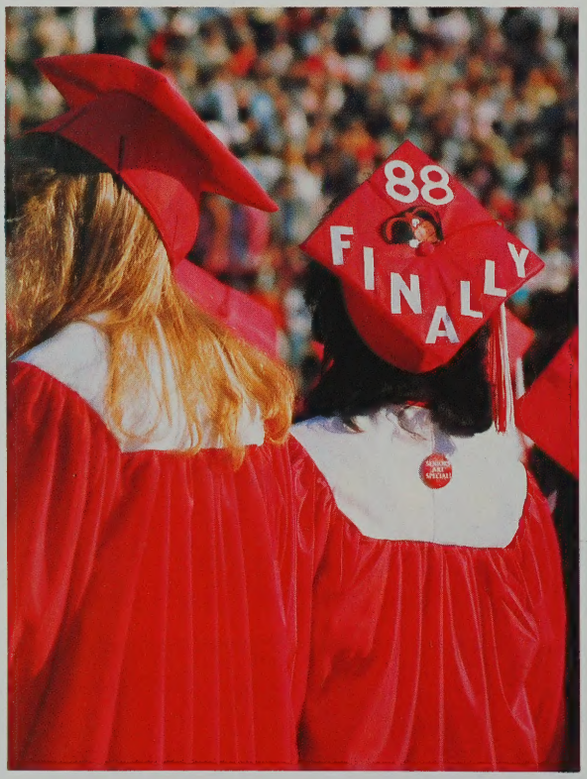
NEW BED
HIGH SCH











All too quickly diplomas were distributed, speeches were given and Joe DeMedeiros led the traditional turning of the tassels. The caps flew into the air, balloons soared to the sky and music filled the air with the words that had become the theme of the class — "I Had the Time of My Life."